Algarve - Still great value for money!

Despite increasing costs throughout the world, an independent survey conducted by the Post Office, in the UK, has considered the Algarve to be the cheapest holiday destination in the Eurozone.

The 'Holiday Money Report for 2022', considered a total of 36 different destinations in the world. It compared the price of meals, drinks and other essential products that people purchase when going on holiday. This 'bag' of products are typically a can of coke, a glass of wine, a bottle of beer, sunscreen, insect repellent and so on. Surprisingly, it revealed prices in the Algarve to be 25% lower than the Costa del Sol, Spain.

The fact that the Algarve continues to deliver on price is fantastic, despite the property market soaring we can still head down to the beach, have a healthy meal and enjoy real value for money! To discover more reasons why the Algarve is the best for you then follow this link.
