Celebration Time - thanks to you!

Even though we still have a few months to go, OliveHomes.com decided to let our hair down and have a well deserved party! It's been non-stop over the last few years and after smashing our targets this year it was time to celebrate.

Of course, none of this would be possible without the fantastic support we have been given from the local community and our international clients who have put their trust in us to deliver their ideal home in Portugal. It's never perfect, albeit that's our aim, but the overwhelming feedback has been tremendous and keeps pushing us to excel at every opportunity. This year we decided to visit Thai Beach in Vilamoura where the food and music kept us happy into and through the night. 2021 has, nonetheless, been a tricky year for so many and we are very grateful that the desire to invest into Portugal remains extremely strong.

We are now back in the office and working hard to finish 2022 on a high. We are a proud, determined team and we are looking forward to 2023 with great optimism. If we can help you sell or buy then please contact us. We are waiting for you!

This is a big thank you to everyone who has helped OliveHomes.com on its journey. We are eternally grateful.
