Lagos - a HOT SPOT at affordable prices!

Lagos is a very special location, plenty of award winning beaches, and a variety of iconic views used for many marketing campaigns and holiday destination promotions.

What makes Lagos so special? Apart from the cool and boho chic laid back lifestyle, the people are friendly and welcoming, it is safe and very foreigner friendly. There is an abundance of excellent restaurants to suit all pockets, quiet and relaxed bars and cafes as well as livelier late night spot for those seeking energy and excitement after dark. A well loved marina and lots of amazing beaches, small, romantic exceptionally photogenic coves with fabulous rock formations, as well as wide open spacious beaches which are never crowded even in the peak of summer. Easily accessible from the airport by car just 50 minutes, there are plenty of transfer options available.

All types of people make Lagos their home, full or part time, or as a solid investment area. From young and not so young singles, to young families and older couples and families, everyone loves Lagos. Whether you love to relax in a cosy cafe or restaurant, take part in a variety of water sports, from surfing, kite surfing, kayaking or SUP, or other activities such as golf, tennis, biking, horse riding there is something for everyone.

We highlight 4 properties in Lagos area this week, all of them ideal because of their location, value for money and investment potential, something to suit all tastes and budgets.
