Olive Homes spotlight on Fuseta & Olhão

Our aim is to serve our clients and delight them to the best of our ability, therefore our sales team with this goal in mind are always looking out for great new listings in the key areas across the Algarve.

Fuseta is a charming and unspoilt natural paradise to the east of Faro, with a small population, stunning scenery and a relaxed pace of life. Ideal spot to take it easy and explore the east Algarve and Spanish villages just across the border.

There is a lovely article here about Fuseta.

Olhão predominately known as a typically Portuguese fisherman's community, and well known for its amazing fish restaurants, but is very much an up and coming location for tourism and real estate investment.
